Questions and Answers about Membership

Q. What are the benefits of being a golfing member?

A. Golfing members will have all privileges of club amenities listed on the prior page. Membership is designed to fit you and your family's busy lifestyle.

Q. Are there any greens fees after I join?

A. No, as a golfing member you pay no greens fees.

Q. What is the availability of tee times?

A. The club offers great availability of tee times to suit your busy schedule. By policy we only host 8 out-of-club tournaments annually so we may maintain better availability of play for our members.

Q. How many members can the Tri-City Country Club have?

A. The Board of Trustees has established a moratorium limiting golf memberships to 375 and an unlimited number of social members.

Q. What can I expect for a pace of play?

A. We promote a pace of play of 3:45 hours for 18 holes.

Q. Are there any dress codes?

A. Yes, the Tri-City C.C. requires proper golf attire which includes collared shirts for men. The lounge & dining room require golf attire or better. Nice jeans are allowed on the golf course & in the lounge & dining room.

Q. Are there groups that I can join to play golf with?

A. Yes, we have very active men's and ladies' groups as well as an active couples' golf schedule.

Q. Does the club offer any tournaments to play in?

A. There are several opportunities to play events at the club. They will range from competitive events to social golf events. Some of our featured tournaments are the Member Guest Tournament, Club Championship, Men's Spring and Fall Gangsomes, Ryder Cup, Couples' Invitational and the Ladies' Tumbleweed. We also have professional staff that play in the CWCPGA Pro-Am Series and all members are welcome to sign up and participate.

Q. Does the Tri-City C.C. offer golf lessons?

A. Yes, we have a professional staff with over 30 years of teaching experience that will cater to all skill levels. The professional staff also offers a summer junior program that teaches basic golf fundamentals, golf course care and proper golf etiquette.

Q. What are the hours of the Fitness Center and the Pool?

A. The fitness center is open by 6:00 each morning with the exception of Monday when it opens at 11:00.

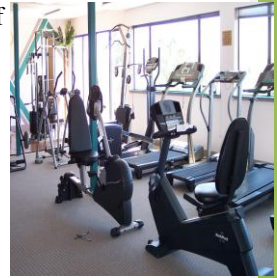

The fitness center closes the same time as the lounge. The swimming pool is open from Memorial Day to Labor Day. Lifeguards are scheduled from 12:00 to 7:00 Tuesday through Sunday. Hours vary based on weather.

Q. What are the benefits for a social member?

A. Social members have full use of the Club facilities to include casual and formal dining, Banquet/Meeting rooms, reciprocal privileges at other private clubs, access to pro shop and professional staff, fitness facility and swimming pool.

Q. What social activities are there?

A. The club offers a variety of social events to include wine dinners, live music, special brunches, New Year's Eve Party, social card clubs and more.
